Get feedback:

- Writing Specialists (professional writing tutors) at the Hixon Writing Center meet with members of the Caltech community for feedback on writing, including teaching statements. Visit <http://writing.caltech.edu/appointments> for more information, and find the scheduler via access.caltech.edu. Postdocs are invited to email writing@caltech.edu to arrange for access to the writing center scheduler.
- Feedback on Teaching is available from the Center for Teaching, Learning, & Outreach: schedule in advance when you are giving a guest lecture, teaching a recitation, or for a specialized teaching demo appointment. CTLO uses various tools, such as observation, video/audio, and photography to help instructors gain new perspectives on their teaching, which can be helpful in writing your teaching statement. <http://teachlearn.caltech.edu>; ctlo@caltech.edu.
